A Note from Anita, Founder of Sharma Law

As this year comes to a close, I just want to say thank you. To my clients, thank you for trusting me with your work, ideas and the moments that matter most in your careers. To the agents, managers, and partners I'm lucky to work alongside, for the trust you place in Sharma Law every day, and finally to the incredible team here at Sharma Law, whose dedication, care, and sharp instincts make this work possible. This year pushed me to grow in new ways, as a lawyer and founder, and more recently, as a podcast host. Hosting the Signed podcast gave me the opportunity to learn directly from creators and builders I deeply admire, and those conversations shape how I show up in my work every day. I'm incredibly grateful for the community we're building together, and I can't wait to see what's next. Happy holidays!

Firm Client Spotlight

Each month, we will recognize a client whose collaboration and accomplishments exemplify the values of our firm.

This month we are featuring firm client Find Out Media LLC. Some of the amazing work they do includes the political podcast The Find Out Podcast. Hosted by Kris Goldsmith, ItsLuke, Ohh That's Rich, Zak Kimball and Tim Fullerton, the Find Out podcast is an honest, irreverent, and often hilarious discussion about America during Trump's second term. No echo chambers. No bullshit. Just real talk. The pod has featured unique guests such as Maine Governor Janet Mills, Harry Dunn, Gavin Newsome, Graham Platner and Adam Kinzinger. Catch up on all episodes wherever you get your podcast.

Client News

Firm client Ground Zero Blues Club, co-owned by Eric Meier and Academy Award-winning actor Morgan Freeman, was featured on the ABC News segment "As long as there's music, blues is going to be there". Located inside a former cotton grading warehouse in Clarksdale, Mississippi, music lovers, young and old, have converged from all over the globe to this club in the corner of Mississippi to hear the blues in the place where it was born. The club will continue its touring live performance show Morgan Freeman's Symphonic Blues Experience, that brings together a powerhouse lineup and once-in-a-lifetime collaboration blending the traditional Delta blues with classical brilliance (tour dates here).

Firm client Jon Kung collaborated with ReFED, a nonprofit food recycling & waste management organization in the U.S., to create a webinar entitled "Make your holiday gatherings joyful - not wasteful". In the webinar, Jon shared his expertise in flavor and low-food waste to create creative and practical tips that you can use all season (and year) long! It showed how Jon's simple and fun strategies can make a meaningful difference, and still be practical, easy, and delicious.

In collaboration with XProgram, on December 13th, firm client DeAndre Brown made an appearance at the Cricket Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Georgia. XProgram, which is designed to outsmart nicotine, got ready for the game with DeAndre (post). DeAndre is a short-form content creator, recognized for his "corporate baddie" persona. With over 1.1M followers on TikTok, he shares anecdotes from his professional and personal life.
